Purpose of this Privacy Notice

The purpose of this notice is to present our data processing activities in a fair and transparent manner.

Please read this notice carefully to understand:

- how we collect personal data
- how we use and store it
- the purposes and legal basis for processing it
- the rights available to visitors and users regarding their personal data

Our company performs all editorial, maintenance and hosting tasks related to the website.

The current version of our Privacy Notice is always available on our website in the section dedicated to Privacy Policy / Data Protection.

This Privacy Policy does not apply to activities carried out by visitors on social media platforms or on other websites that can be accessed via links on our website. We recommend reviewing the privacy policies of those third-party services when visiting their websites.

For the purposes of this notice, a Visitor (or User) means any natural person who visits the website, regardless of whether they participate in any activities or use our services.

Data Processing Activities

The websites operated by our company serve to promote our business activities and services.

Our website also allows visitors to:

- contact us directly
- request a quote or further information
- provide feedback regarding our products

In order to respond to enquiries, we may request the following information:

- name
- email address
- telephone number

These details enable us to respond to your message and handle your request.

If you request a quotation for products offered by us, you may be asked to provide:

- name
- email address
- telephone number
- delivery address
- product details
- quantity requested

We use this information to contact you and provide a quotation. If the quotation is accepted, the information provided may also be used for the preparation and fulfilment of the order and the contract.

If you subscribe to our newsletter, you may provide your:

- name
- email address

Subscribers may receive updates about promotions, product information, industry news, and company updates.

You participate in this data processing when you submit your data through forms available on our website, such as:

- the Contact form
- the Quote Request form
- the Newsletter Subscription form

By completing the form and clicking the Submit button, you provide your personal information to us.

During the processing of this data, we respect the fundamental rights of our visitors regarding the protection of personal data and protect such data through appropriate technical and organisational security measures.

Legal Basis for Data Processing

The legal basis for processing personal data is the voluntary consent of the user, given freely and based on adequate information, in accordance with Article 6(1)(a) of the GDPR.

Before submitting any form, visitors have the opportunity to review this Privacy Notice and provide informed consent to the processing of their personal data.

Personal data processed based on consent will be stored only for as long as necessary to fulfil the purpose of the processing, such as responding to an enquiry, or until the consent is withdrawn.

Users have the right to withdraw their consent at any time.

Withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing carried out before the withdrawal.

Access to Personal Data

Personal data submitted through the website may be accessed only by authorised employees of our company who are responsible for handling such information.

These employees are required to treat personal data confidentially.

Personal data will not be disclosed to third parties, except where disclosure is required by law.

Cookies

Like most websites, our website uses cookies, which are small files stored on your device (such as a computer, tablet, laptop or smartphone).

Cookies are used to:

- ensure the proper operation of the website
- enable certain website functions
- analyse website usage
- improve the user experience

Cookies allow the website to remember selected products and browsing activity during a session.

Analytics Cookies

Our website may use Google Analytics to analyse website traffic and user behaviour.

Google Analytics does not identify visitors personally. The analysis is conducted using anonymised data.

More information about Google's cookie usage can be found here:

<https://www.google.com/policies/technologies/types/>

Social Media Cookies

Our website may include social media features such as a Facebook sharing button, provided by:

Facebook Inc.

1601 Willow Road
Menlo Park, CA 94025
United States

Through this service, Facebook may have access to certain anonymous data generated by cookies used on our website.

These cookies allow Facebook to analyse website traffic and browsing patterns.

Facebook may also use this data to deliver targeted advertisements to users based on browsing behaviour and device-related information.

Apart from these anonymised data points, Facebook does not have access to any other personal data listed in this notice.
